This is what I believe most Dad's would wish for their children and we would wish the same for them-
CSB

"This is my wish for you:
Comfort on difficult days, smiles when sadness intrudes, rainbows to follow the clouds, laughter to kiss your lips, sunsets to warm your heart, hugs when spirits sag, beauty for your eyes to see, friendships to brighten your being, faith so that you can believe, confidence for when you doubt,
courage to know yourself, patience to accept the truth, Love to complete your life."

-Ralph Waldo Emerson
(1803-1882)

Do you remember who sang this song?
When?

Oh, My Papa

Oh, my pa-pa, to me he was so wonderful Oh, my pa-pa, to me he was so good No one could be, so gentle and so lovable Oh, my pa-pa, he always understood Gone are the days when he could take me on his knee
And with a smile he'd change my tears to laughter
Oh, my pa-pa, so funny, so adorable Always the clown so funny in his way Gone are the days when he could take me on
his knee
And with a smile he'd change my tears to
laughter
Deep in my heart I love him so today
Oh, my pa-pa
Oh, my pa-pa!

Suckers for Seersucker

On a hot and humid Thursday in June, United States senators arrive to work wearing seersucker suits. "Seersucker Thursday" is an annual bipartisan tradition, a throwback to the days before air-conditioning was installed in the U.S. Capitol. The holiday was championed by Mississippi Senator Trent Lott in 1996, who wanted to "bring a little Southern charm to the Capitol." Seersucker is popular in the South, but the cool, dimpled cotton fabric originated in India. The word seersucker comes from the Persian phrase shir o shekar, meaning "milk and sugar," which refers to the smooth and coarse textures of the cloth's alternating light and dark stripes. Do you like seersucker? Our LNA, Sally, likes seersucker. 😊
