Find Your Inner Hero

“Hard times don’t create heroes. It is during the hard times when the hero within us is revealed.” —Bob Riley

Hats and Horses

Hats off to those who sport special headwear at the Kentucky Derby. The hat tradition—with options ranging from sublime to silly—dates back to 1875. At that time, those attending the Derby considered it a social affair. As a result, race organizers invited women’s clubs, whose members dressed in their finest attire.

Florists on Wheels

Sharing the streets with food trucks are members of the latest mobile business trend: flower trucks! Bringing fresh-cut blooms to farmers’ markets, craft fairs, private parties and other public events, these floral fleets allow customers to assemble their own unique bouquets on the spot. Since many flower trucks are refurbished from vintage vans, campers, pickup trucks and buses, they offer additional aesthetic appeal for folks wanting to snap a springtime photo for social media.
