Honoring Old Glory

In 1916, President Woodrow Wilson officially established June 14 as Flag Day. It honors the day in 1777 when the first version of the flag, featuring 13 stars and 13 stripes, was adopted as the nation's official flag.

Freedom for All

On Friday, June 19, we honor Juneteenth, commemorating the full enforcement of the Emancipation Proclamation on June 19, 1865, freeing all enslaved people. In the words of activist Fannie Lou Hamer, "Nobody's free until everybody's free."
